

Dance Floor Game Secrets Report

By DRH World's #1 Dance Floor Game Expert

"Sometimes you meet people who talk a big game but have none. Other times, you meet people who don't talk a big game but have quantum amounts of game. DRH is definitely the latter. I have never seen dance floor game like DRH presented to the guys from Project Rockstar. DRH was clear, articulate, entertaining and most importantly - for real. The technology that he has for the dance floor game niche is light years ahead of his competitors and I would not hesitate in recommending him to anyone.

There should be more people in the community like him - normal, cool, positive, fun and with a great knowledge and ability to apply new concepts in The Game. He is one of the guys who is really pushing the technology forward and that is really great to see."

How I Raised Myself From Failure To Success With Women

I was born and raised in France by North African parents. What you probably don't know is that even up to 5 to 10 years ago, entry to night clubs was refused if you were black or from North Africa. So, until my 24th year when I moved to the United Kingdom, I had never really been inside a night club my entire life. It's absolutely true. At the same time, I discovered the Mystery Method and got excited by the idea of picking up women in clubs.

Unfortunately, my English wasn't so good at the time and also felt insecure talking to women in a loud environment. So I stopped trying to "open" women and went to the only place in the club where I felt confident: the dance floor.

From there in less than a year, I counted almost 40 night outs. For 40 night outs, I got 34 kiss-closed from the dance floor only with often minimal or no talking at all.

In 2008, I launched the first seminar exclusively on how to pick up women on the dance floor without having to learn how to dance. I created the only Dance Floor Game program that gives a straightforward road map to seduce women on the dance floor.

The Easiest Way to Get Started In Dance Floor Game

Unfortunately, there are two myths about the dance floor: "The Dance floor is a trap" and "I have to know how to dance to pick up women on the dance floor". Because of the strong impact of The Mystery Method few years ago, most guys who discovered the game and started this community internalized the fact that the dance floor is place to avoid when in fact it's not. Anybody with basic dancing skills can be successful on the dance floor. Don't fall for these two myths. Success on the dance floor has nothing to do with dancing skills.

The number one rule is to make sure you are in a club with music you really enjoy, you will look more relaxed and you will feel good. It hard to fake enjoyment on the dance floor.

It's important how you approach on the dance floor. Always approach from the side and never from behind. Also make sure you are in a club with music you really enjoy, you will look more relaxed and you will feel good.

The lowest risk approach is to make eye contact with your target and high five her. Then simply spin her. Don't forget to smile and to look playful. From there you can escalate smoothly.

One advantage of dance floor game is that once you know how to get results you can do it everywhere, anytime and it's always fun. Of course you can approach at the bar but remember that dance floor is one the fastest way to get physical with a woman.

A good approach on the dance floor can get you laid faster. As a matter of fact most women subconsciously associate dance to sex. Another thing to consider is that it's a very useful skill to attract girls who don't speak your language. I live in Europe where most of the girls barely speak English, but they ALL love to dance.

How to Make Women Approaching YOU on the Dance Floor

While doing my dance game, I always follow the same model. As soon as I get into the club, I head straight for the dance floor. I don't look at the ladies. I don't go buy a drink or anything.

I just head to the dance floor and head practically to the centre of the dance floor and I just enjoy myself for the first 10-15 minutes. If you are with a group of friends go there TOGETHER. It will accelerate the attraction process.

I just keep dancing to the music. I don't look at the ladies at all. I don't even try to dance with them. I'm like as if I was all alone, in my own little world. Yes, in my own little world just dancing and I can tell you that you will get noticed really very quickly when you do that because 95% of the men who are on the dance floor are not really dancing.

One, they're not really dancing. Two, they're staring at the women. They try to grind behind them, trying to make eye contact.

It's when you become a guy who just doesn't care, in his own world, in his own reality which makes you stand up straightway on the dance floor.

Then after 10 to 15 minutes, what I usually do is, I look around the dance floor and try to catch a group of guys or a mixed group who seem to be really enjoying themselves and when I spot these people, I approach them.

Basically, what I'm trying to do is I just try to engage and become friendly with them. Just acting like you have met a good old friend. Trust me, people are friendly. You'll rarely be rejected if you are congruent. The image I want to convey is: I'm cool and sociable. I'm on the dance floor to have fun and don't care about girls.

I'm here to have fun regardless of gender, age or anything. I'm here to just meet people. I usually go and have fun with some guys or just challenge them or just laugh with them, and not really look at women. I treat them as some buddies.

When you do that with 2 or 3 groups on the dance floor what you'll usually notice is that straightway all the women on the dance floor will be attracted to you. They'll just start to dance right next to you.

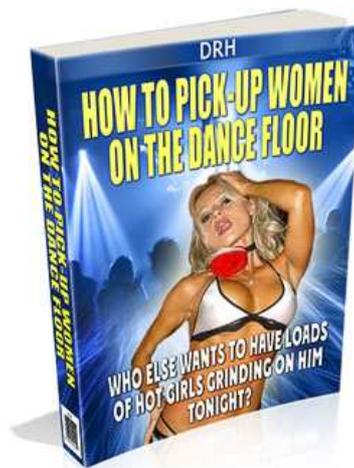

You will notice at some point when you're having fun and don't really care, all of a sudden, you'll have all these women around you. You can then approach because you are socially proofed.

Don't Do This Mistake After A Kiss Close

One question that I got all the time is after kissing a girl on the dance floor what do I do next? Well, relax and don't make out too much, no heavy make-out sessions, she thereby will not feel slutty and it will all be normal, that's why she'll see you again. Be cocky-funny ("I'm going to charge you for these kisses" for example) Leave her alone, have fun with your friends and then comeback.

Don't change your attitude! Remember: you are here to have fun. Just take some time to befriend her friends and build some rapport with her there are enough materials out there that teach this, use what works best for you.

The first and only system to pick up women on the dance floor is out NOW!
